DISC GOLF SPONSORSHIPS

Support Disc Golf in Our Community!

The Irmo Chapin Recreation Commission (ICRC) offers three scenic disc golf courses that provide the perfect balance of fitness, outdoor recreation, and fun in our community. Designed for everyone—from first-time players to experienced competitors—our courses are the perfect to learn and play.

Disc golf is one of the fastest-growing outdoor sports, offering a fun, low-impact activity that promotes physical fitness, mental well-being, and social connections. Whether enjoying a casual round with friends or practicing solo, players of all ages experience the benefits of spending time outdoors while exploring our parks.

OUR COURSES

Crooked Creek Park

Home to a challenging 36-hole course, Crooked Creek Park features a mix of semi-open fairways winding through woodlands, scenic creeks, and walking trails. The course offers an exciting experience for players of all skill levels and is free to play.

Saluda Shoals Park

This premier 18-hole, par-63 championship course stretches 7,402 feet through the park's wooded trails. Developed in partnership with the Columbia Disc Golf Club, the course provides a rewarding experience for recreational and competitive players alike. A daily parking fee applies.

Seven Oaks Park

Perfect for beginners and families, this 9-hole course features open fairways, mature trees, and a flat, easy-to-navigate layout that makes learning the game fun and accessible. The course is free to play and welcomes players of all ages.

BECOME A HOLE SPONSOR

Your sponsorship helps support the maintenance and improvement of these outstanding courses while showcasing your business or organization to thousands of players and park visitors each year.

Partner with ICRC to help grow the sport of disc golf and invest in healthy outdoor recreation for our community.
